Look up and you will find me
Looking at you from the moon

I looked up
And all I can see is the moon

I see your face, you said
But I cannot see yours

You are so far away
I am here with you,

I am in your heart,
You whispered

You are in my heart
I whisper.

And we both smile
at the big blue moon

of an endless summer
of August longing.

‘C’EST LA VIE, BON BONS. TRALALA” – is a collection of art & poetry that emerged during the COVID-19 Pandemic. It is a body of work where the poet-artist is reflecting on how ‘small is beautiful’* looks like in daily life, what ‘Development as Freedom’ means personally for her in global society, and it documents her examination of the statement that ‘simplicity is beautiful and profound’. She discovers that this is the name, the way and the voice of the journey and homecoming of herself in a poet-artist’s studio.
